

Born and raised in Manistee, Mark Fedder graduated from Manistee High School in the Class of 1998. After earning an Associate's Degree from West Shore Community College, he graduated from Central Michigan University with a major in History. In the Spring of 2011, he became the Executive Director of the Manistee County Historical Museum. He enjoys spending time with his family, going to the movies, and history.